

Prayer for the Week

Glory and strength to Christ, who loves us, who blood washed our sins from our lives, who made us a kingdom, priests for his Father, forever – and yes, he’s on his way! Riding the clouds, he’ll be seen by every eye; those who mocked him and killed him will see him. People from all nations, and all times will tear their clothes in lament. “Oh yes!” The Master declares, “I’m A to Z. I’m the God who is, the God who was and the God about to arrive. I’m the Sovereign Strong.”

Revelation 1: 4-8

If you have been into any shops recently you would be forgiven for thinking that Christmas has already arrived – shelves loaded with Christmas food and presents and Christmas music following you, unavoidably, down the aisles. But we haven’t even reached Advent yet – not until Sunday. This last Sunday we celebrated Christ the King Sunday, the time when we reaffirm the Kingship of Christ as Lord over all of life, in time and in eternity and which points us to the life, death and resurrection of Jesus as Lord and King.

Let’s be sure that Jesus is King over every part of our lives.

Almighty God,
Thank you for your wonderful love shown to each one of us.
Thank you for your unfailing faithfulness and kindness,
and for your care and protection.
We are thankful for the assurance that you are in control of our lives and in control of the whole world.
As we celebrate Christ as King,
help us to let Him reign in our lives, in our thoughts and actions.
May your will, not ours, be done. Amen.
