

Martin's a Silver Wolf!

A VOLUNTEER for the Rosyth Scouts has received Scouting's highest honour.

Martin Rogers, the Scout leader for the 13th Fife group received the Silver Wolf award, the highest award available to adult volunteers.

First joining as a Wolf Cub in 1954, Martin has now been a part of the Scouts for 68 years, becoming an adult leader in 1964 and Cub Scout leader three years later.

Not only does he volunteer with the Scouts, he also donates his time to various community organisations, such as the Rosyth Gothenburg Trust, Take a Pride in Rosyth Group and Rosyth Garden City Association.

Martin also received the Volunteer of the Year Award from Fife Voluntary Action, making him well deserving of the Silver Wolf Award, which recognises exceptional service.

Terry O'Neill, the district chair, spoke on behalf of the Rosyth District.

He said: "We're so pleased that Martin's dedication to Scouting in Rosyth has been recognised by the Scout Association in this way.

"Scouts only happens in our local villages and towns thanks to volunteers like Martin although it doesn't need to be for 58 years (as a leader) before anybody asks!"

